Liability Renunciation Declaration

Responsibility and liability renunciation of all parties involved

Participants take part in the event at their own risk (= untimed and timed practice, qualifying, warm-up, test and reconnaissance/inspection laps, races, heats, special stages to achieve maximum speeds or shortest driving times). They bear the sole responsibility under civil and criminal law for any damage caused by them.

By submitting their entries, they waive any claims or rights to pursue action for damages in connection with the event against:

- the own participants (barring any other special agreements between the participants),
- the other participants respectively, the owners and proprietors of all the cars participating in the event (as far as the event takes place on a permanent or temporary closed track) and their assistants,
- the FIA, the EASU the EASU affiliated and member organisations, the Baltic Racing Promotion organisation, their presidents, executive bodies, managing directors, secretaries general, staff and members,
- the promoter/organiser,

-the Organiser, the officials and marshals, the circuit owners, the authorities' entities, racing services and all other persons involved with the organisation of the event,

-the organisation responsible for the construction and maintenance of roads, and

-the agents and other persons employed to perform an obligation, the legal representatives, the full-time employees and volunteers of all the above persons and entities as well as their members.

The disclaimer does not apply for damages or harm to life, body or health or any other damage resulting from the deliberate or negligent breach of duty, and not for any other damage resulting from the breach of a material contractual obligation committed by the group of persons released from liability. In the case of damages resulting from a slightly negligent breach of duty of a material contractual obligation, the liability for financial loss and for damage to property is limited to the typical foreseeable damage.

The disclaimer applies to claims for any legal reason whatsoever, so in particular to claims for damages based on contractual and non-contractual liability and to claims from tortuous acts.

Implied exclusions from liability shall remain unaffected by the above non-liability clause.

With the submission of the entry form, the participants understand that there is no insurance coverage within the framework of the motor traffic insurance (automobile liability, physical damage insurance, car occupant accident insurance) for any damages sustained during an event that is based on the achievement of maximum speeds. They undertake to inform the owner and registered keeper of the race vehicle hereof.

If an injury occurs or is detected during an event or in the case of health detriment which could temporarily or permanently call into question the fitness to participate in motor sport events, the undersigned – under consideration of the possible safety risk which might result not only for him/her but also for third parties – releases all treating doctors from their duty to treat medical record confidentially amongst each other and with regard to the clerk of the course, the chief doctor, the stewards, the chief medical officer, the doctors, co-ordination automobile sport (EASU) and the insurance claims administration.

We agree to the storage, transmission and administration of my personal data in accordance with the Estonian Data Protection Provisions, under consideration of the Estonian Data Protection law.

Release from Claims of the Vehicle's Owner

I agree with the participation of the vehicle specified on the entry form in the event (= untimed and timed practice, qualifying, warm-up, test and reconnaissance/inspection laps, races, heats, special stages to achieve maximum speeds or shortest driving times) and confirm to waive any claims or rights to pursue action for damages in connection with the event against:

-the own participants and assistants,

-the other participants respectively, the owners and proprietors of all the cars participating in the event (as far as the event takes place on a permanent or temporary closed track) and their assistants,

-the FIA, the EASU, the EASU affiliated and member organisations, the Baltic Racing Promotion organisation, their presidents, executive bodies, managing directors, secretaries general, staff and members

-the promoter/series organiser,

-the Organiser, the officials and marshals, the circuit owners, the authorities' entities, racing services and all other persons involved with the organisation of the event,

-the organisation responsible for the construction and maintenance of roads, and

-the agents and other persons employed to perform an obligation, the legal representatives, the full-time employees and volunteers of all the above persons and entities as well as their members.

Responsibility of the participants

Competitors, drivers/passengers, car owners and registered keepers take part in the event at their own risk. They bear the sole responsibility under civil and criminal law for any damage caused by them or by the car they are using unless a liability renunciation has been agreed.

General contractual statements of competitors, drivers (competitors and drivers including several drivers entered for one car = Participant)

Participants shall be jointly and severally liable for all obligations resulting from the entry contract.

The participants confirm that:

-The specifications made on this entry form are correct and complete.

-They fully meet the requirements of the event (= untimed and timed practice, qualifying, warm-up, races to achieve maximum speeds or shortest driving times)

-The car complies with all applicable regulations in all points.

-All parts of the car are available for inspection by the scrutineers at any time, and

-They will use the car only in a technically and visually perfect condition during the event.

Furthermore, they confirm with their signature that they have studied the content of the present Regulations as well as this entry form including appendices, the FIA International Sporting Code (ISC) and its Appendices, the FIA Judicial and Disciplinary Rules, the Anti-Doping Rules of the International and the National Anti Doping Agencies (WADA/NADA Code), the applicable EASU Regulations, and all the other FIA and EASU Regulations and they agree that all these provisions are binding for them and that they will respect them. They are aware that the start may be refused in the case of a missing signature. In the case of a refusal of the start as a consequence of non-compliance with the formal requirements, the entry fees paid shall be declared forfeit and will not be refunded.

Any dispute in this context shall be settled among each other.

All drivers and competitors participating in Baltic 1000 km race undertake by signing this form, on behalf of themselves, their employees and agents, to observe all the provisions, as supplemented or amended, of the FIA International Sporting Code, the Circuit General Prescriptions, the Technical Regulations, the present Sporting Regulations, Supplementary regulations and all other regulations and bulletins concerning the Baltic 1000 km race. It is the competitor's obligation to ensure that all persons concerned by his entry observe all the requirements of the regulations. If a competitor is unable to be present in person at the Competition, he must nominate his representative in this form. Throughout the entire duration of the Competition, a person having charge of an entered car during any part of an Competition is responsible jointly and severally with the competitor for ensuring that the requirements are observed. Competitors must ensure that their cars comply with the conditions of eligibility and safety throughout the Competition.
